

NOTICE OF ADVERSE ACTION

Pursuant to the requirements of the Fair Credit Reporting Act, this notice is to give
, applicant, the following information.

Having previously advised you of our intent to not employ you, based on whole or part on the consumer report obtained for us by a Consumer Reporting Agency (“CRA”), and not having received any claim of erroneous information after five days, We are formally notifying you of our decision to not employ you at this time.

Information was provided us by the CRA shown below:

The name and address of the CRA is:

Background Bureau, Inc
2019 Alexandria Pike
Highland Heights, KY 41076.

The CRA did not make the decision to take adverse action against you and cannot give specific reasons for it. You have had the right to dispute the accuracy or completeness of any information the CRA furnished to us, and you have the right to an additional free report (in addition to the one we have already provided you with the Pre-Adverse Action Notice) upon written request to the CRA within 60 days of your receipt of this notice.

Thank you for your interest in us.
